WEEKLY MEMO

Date: December 18, 2017

From the Vice Principal:

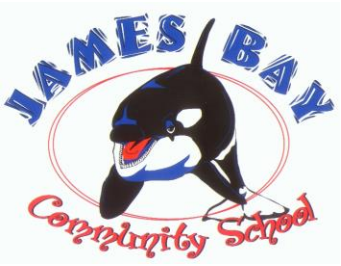

We look forward to seeing our James Bay Community School families at our Winter Concert performances. We would like to remind you that the Thursday evening performance is bound to be busy so if you can make the afternoon performance you might have a better opportunity for great seating to see your child perform. Both concerts are non-ticketed events and doors will open at 12:45 and 6:15 respectively. We will be selling tickets to raffle off comfy seating for both performances. Tickets are $1 and there are two chances to win 4 comfy seats for you and your party. We look forward to seeing you there.

We would like to take this time to wish you and your family a wonderful, relaxing winter holiday. We are so proud of the hard work and progress from all of the students within our building. A well-deserved break is in order! We look forward to seeing you back on Monday January 8th.
Lindsay Swan

Lost and Found:

We have some really precious items in the office. There is a lovely watch, a cuddly bear purse, silver necklace and keys. Also we have some wonderful jackets in the hallway. Please come by have a look and take them home.
