BI-WEEKLY MEMO

Date: April 4, 2019

From the Principal

Our first week back after Spring Break has been quite eventful. Now students are more settled into their school routines and we are off to the races.

Other than this week, April is the month of short school weeks, starting with a Curriculum Implementation day on Friday, April 12, then Easter long weekend, which is the 19th and 22nd and then it is May! School will not be in session on these days.

We will be welcoming our next year's Kindergarten students on the evening of April 17, which will be an opportunity for the children to explore kindergarten activities and give the parents a chance, ask questions.

Student led conferences will happen on the afternoon of Thursday, April 25. Students will be dismissed at 11:50. There will be no lunches provided on that day. Make sure you visit the Scholastic Book Fair held in our library on April 24 – 26.

Have a wonderful weekend.
